Apostle Irma Gimith is a prayer warrior and intercessor who has founded several intercessory organisations in Suriname and beyond, namely Nations Apostolic Interceding Ministry. She is married to Pastor Ernest Gimith and is the mother of seven (7) children. She is called to be an Apostle to the nations and is affectionately known as "Ma" by many in her local church community as well as nationally.

In nearly thirty (30) years of ministry, Apostle Irma Gimith-Woerdings has planted many churches in her home nation of Suriname. In various seasons, she has travelled to the interior of the Surinamese rainforest to preach the gospel to far flung communities and, battle against principalities and powers of darkness in these places. As her ministry call has matured, Apostle Gimith has also given leadership and counsel to several local churches and others abroad (U.S.A and the Netherlands).
