

Fitzroy Wilson

Apostle Fitzroy Wilson received his call and initial training for ministry in Toronto, Canada where he lived for many years. He is the founder and Senior Elder of Kingdom First International Church (KFIC) located in Lower Estate, St. Michael, Barbados.

For over 30 years Apostle Wilson has been used by God to change lives throughout the Caribbean, South America, the USA, Europe, and the African continent.

He is the founder and President of the Regional Exchange Apostolic Leadership Network (R.E.A.L. Network). A Network which is built on authentic relationships and is comprised of five-fold ministry gifts and emerging kingdom leaders.

Apostle Wilson also gives leadership to The Caribbean Apostolic Network (CAN), a non-vertical relationship-based network committed to empowering the next generation of apostolic and prophetic leaders in the Caribbean.

Apostle Fitzroy Wilson is married to Pastor Leonie Wilson and is the father of three children.
