

Deborah King

Deborah Triceia King is married to Apostle Timothy King for 28 years. They were married in March 1993 and Deborah became the Mother of four children, two boys and two girls. Together with her husband, they founded Dominion Household Ministries in July 2000.

Deborah King is a past student of Warrior's International School where she did initial training in the prophetic; she later became a student of Christ Prophetic Academy. In 2014, Deborah King was ordained a prophet by Apostle Fitzroy Wilson with the Regional Exchange Apostolic Leadership Network (R.E.A.L Network)

Deborah, as a dancer, is the Founder of Dominion Dance Academy and taught also Christian dance and the biblical significance of dance in conferences in Guyana, the Caribbean and USA. She was the first eagle for Guyana in the Eagle's International School of Dance out of Texas, U.S.A.

Presently, Deborah is an executive member of Christ Prophetic Academy, the local administrator for Regional Exchange Apostolic Leadership Network (R.E.A.L Network) and one of the Directors of the Caribbean Apostolic Network, (CAN).

Deborah King is a Trained Teacher by profession. She taught at St. Margaret's Primary School for Five (5) years then was recruited by The New Guyana School, where she served for ten (10) years, until her resignation, at which point she founded, The Reading School. It was through her reading school, that she was able to successfully enable hundreds of children and adults who could not read or had difficulty with reading.

In 2010 Deborah embarked on and completed training with Philippa Morrish, of New York School of Etiquette, in Etiquette and Social Graces. In 2017, Deborah founded, HAROBED Training, to design, develop and deliver Customer Service Training and Customer Experience Training for both private and public sector clients.