Please read carefully and connect with us should you have any questions.

2 Registration

All the sessions for this year’s conference are free and require no registration; however, we do ask our overseas guests to communicate their attendance so that arrangements for their transportation and meals (where required) can be made. Please complete the Overseas Delegate Information Form to indicate your attendance at KC2024.

3 Accommodation

There are many options for stay in Barbados, which can be booked through a variety of booking sites such as Booking.com, Expedia or Airbnb.

If you prefer to stay in a hotel, we recommend booking a hotel on the South Coast (see image below) of the island. While you are free to select a hotel of your choosing the following hotels are those we recommend as great value.

- ✚ Blue Horizon | Rockley Beach, Christ Church | <https://bluehorizon.bb/>
- ✚ Palm Garden Hotel | Worthing Christ Church | <https://palmgardenbarbados.com/>
- ✚ Accra Beach Hotel & Spa | Rockley, Christ Church | www.accrabeachhotel.com

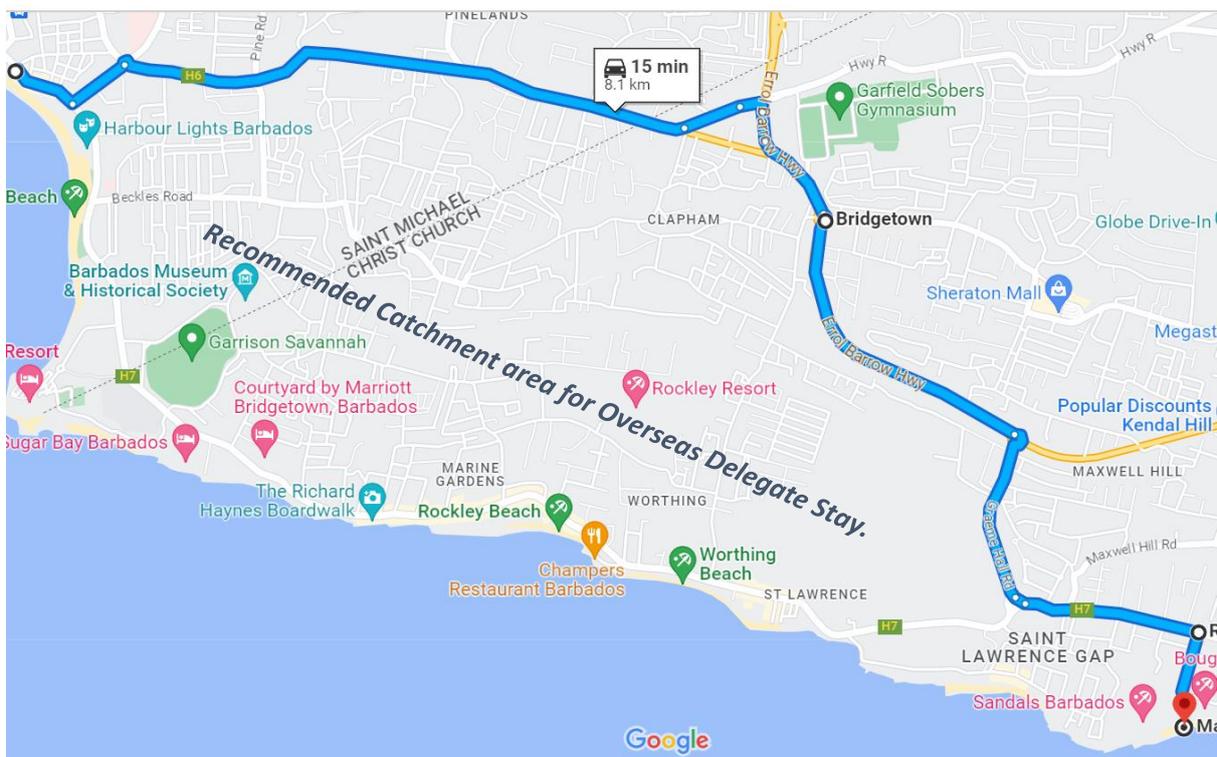

3.2 Guesthouse/Airbnb

If a guest house or self-contained apartment is your preferred accommodation there are also many excellent options. Below are some options for your consideration, however please note that we cannot guarantee availability.

4.3 Just For Me

We know that sometimes our delegates have relatives or friends who can host them while on island and may therefore require a more personal arrangement. Alternatively, you have special requirements that the standard packages may not include. Please select this option on the Overseas Delegate Information Form and we will connect with you directly to discuss your needs and tailor a package for you. However, please take note of some important conditions below in selecting this option.

5 Restrictions

As mentioned in 3.2 above we encourage our attendees to stay within the catchment area shown. The costs for delivery vary significantly across the island and so this area represents the best mix of accessibility and affordability for our guests. Please note that the hospitality packages are only available to persons within the catchment area. Attendees who opt to stay with relatives or friends outside of the catchment area will be responsible for making their own arrangements for transportation and meals.
